

Reminder: submission of 2009 annual report by 29 January 2010

Current regulations require Representative Offices (RO's) of foreign companies operating in Vietnam to submit an Annual Report on their activities during the year to the Service of Industry and Trade. The Annual Report is due before the last working day of January of the following year, i.e. before 29 January 2010 for this year.

Failure to submit the Annual Report could result in monetary penalty of up to VND15,000,000 (USD800). RO Licence withdrawal is a possibility for failure to submit an Annual Report for two consecutive years. Completing and filing your Annual Report on a timely basis is an important prerequisite in maintaining your good reputation and compliance record with the authorities.

Please contact us should you wish KPMG to professionally assist you with the preparation and submission of the Annual Report for your RO.
